

Cheyenne Heritage Quilters

Patchwork Update

November 2023

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community.

..... President's Message - Carole Gardner

What a great group of Quilters we have. What better way could we spend our time together, than sharing, and learning about Quilting. How wonderful the results. Each meeting, we have beautiful show and tell quilts. I know many of you are making wonderful things, we just do not always get to see them at the meetings. I would say,

"Keep up the good work."

*Buttons and patches and the cold wind blowing, the days pass quickly
when I am sewing.
Quote from the internet*

In the way of encouragement, I want to challenge all of you to two things.

- No. 1 Make and give away one hand crafted { quilted } item for Christmas.
 - No. 2 In the next few months, try a quilting method or technique you have never tried before. It does not need to be a huge project. Just try something new. Learn something new. Be creative. Share your talents with the rest of your world. If you do not want to "share with the world", share with yourself. Be pleased with your talent and efforts and the beautiful results.
- Happy Thanksgiving. Enjoy the holiday. Be safe.

November 6th Program - Marci Baker

The Serendipity of Fabulous Fabrics Stacked Repeats

Marci Baker is internationally recognized for her expertise in quilting. She enjoys sharing ideas that simplify the quilting process.

A native of Dallas, Texas she began teaching quilting in 1989 for her local quilting guild and shops. In 1993 she started Alicia's Attic, a company that combines her love of math, teaching, and her love of quilting. As an admirer of traditional quilts, Marci was inspired to author the "Not Your Grandmother's Quilts" book series, which uses traditional patterns that people associate with grandmothers but simplifies the techniques.

In 2006 she expanded Alicia's Attic by purchasing Clearview Triangle from Sara Nephew. Marci and Sara are collaborating on new designs and techniques, with Marci traveling and teaching under her new business name: "Quilt with Marci Baker".

One of her latest adventures is teaching on Creative Spark, the online learning platform by C & T Publishing. Marci currently lives in Ft. Collins, CO with her husband Clint where they enjoy the beauty of the mountains. She has traveled and taught quilting classes as far north as Edmonton, Canada, as far south as Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, as far east as Muscat, Oman, and far west as Soldotna, Alaska.

CHQ will take Marci Baker out to dinner on November 6th at 4:45 p.m. at Two Doors Down 118 East 17th Street, in Downtown Cheyenne.

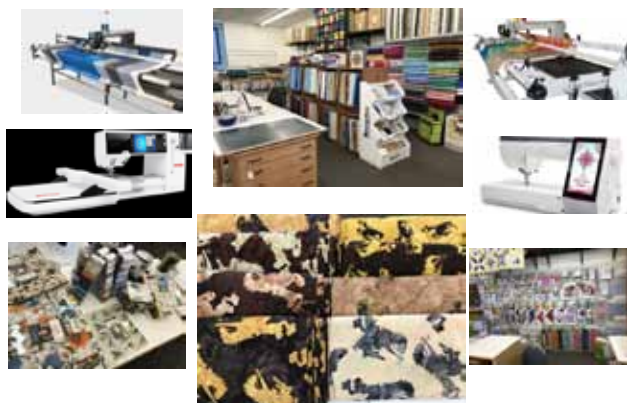

Each member pays for their own meal. CHQ only pays for Marci's dinner. RSVP to Gwen (at 775-934-4258) no later than Friday, Nov. 3rd, 2023.

Dear members, our Programing Chairman, Gwen Harris, is looking to have a few members help her set up and take down of equipment for our Monday night meetings.

Help needed! We do have a few volunteers and thank you for your help, however, Gwen could use a few more. Perhaps to form a team. If you're able to arrive at 6:15 p.m. on meeting nights it would be of great help. Please see Gwen or call her at 775-934-4258, if you are interested. It can be a way to meet members and network some ideas for programs and classes!

Cindi Young

It's time to get your Christmas Fabric and Sewing machines ready. We are decorating a tree for the Magic City Enterprises Festival of Trees Auction and this year our tree will consist of red and gold ornaments! Please contact Cindi Young cindiyoung69@gmail.com or 970-631-7814 with questions.

Guidelines:

1. Ornaments need to be made 2 – 4 inches in size.
2. Ornaments need to be made with the majority of color in Red, Gold, or both. (i.e. if making a cardinal, you can still give him black eyes, but no blue jays!)
3. Due by our November meeting.

We need 200 ornaments now.

If you are unable to make ornaments but would still like to help, we will need cash donations for some gold ribbon/garland and other miscellaneous items to make our tree awesome!

Their passion for this project is catching and we really enjoyed hearing about the group. If you are interested in helping with this project, contact Cathy James for more information or go to the Sew Powerful website at:
