Ayn Hanna's Natural Dying of Fabrics (Mother Nature provides the dye)

I hope you all enjoyed Ayn Hanna's program at the July Meeting. She is such an energetic and generous artist and I was really happy to have her come and show us her work. I know that several of you are interested in trying the dying process. If you have any questions about the workshop, please let me know. Ayn's Eco-Dying workshop is scheduled for October 26 & 27 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. It will be held at Jukebox Quilts in Ft. Collins which is just east of the Budweiser Plant. 2013 “Be A Star” Quilt Show August 22, 23, 24

I hope you are all thinking about the Quilt show. That you have your quilts ready to enter and your Boutique items ready to turn in.

Tina Wilcox is in charge of quilt entries.

Dena Lanning is in charge of the Boutique.

If you have questions, please contact them.

Would you please help advertise by: Telling your friends and family, posting it on face book, and maybe taking a poster to put up somewhere. Selling tickets for the Opportunity Quilt would be a great way to advertise.

We should have a great show, and we want a great attendance. We want everybody to get a quilt ready to hang.

Also, for our boutique to be a success, we need everybody making items to sell. The things that sell best are things that can be sold for $10.00 or less. Other items that are not quilt-related are welcome. Let's all work together to make this show a success.

Thanks so much for all you do. Carole Gardner, Advertising Chair

Quilt Appraisals -- Members of the Cheyenne Heritage Quilt Club: (Editor's note This was received before this newsletter was published. There is still time to sign up --call Bea Dersham).

I am afraid I am going to have to apologize for dropping the ball for the Quilt Show Appraisals. After having done this for more years than I can remember, I forgot to get a sign-up sheet ready to send around during the meetings of May and June. I can truthfully say that I was preoccupied during the month of June with a trip to Hawaii with my daughters and granddaughter, but I should have sent the list with friends - May, I'm not so sure of!! That said, I will be at the meeting on Monday, July 15 and will send around the sign-up then. If, for some reason, you are not planning on being at the meeting, please feel free to call me to set up dates and times. I will be in and out over the weekend, but if you will leave a message, I will get to you as soon as possible. My number is 307-637-7195.

The Show runs August 22, 23, 24. On Thursday, appraisals will take place at 10:00 am to 3:30 pm, Friday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, and Saturday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. Fee will be $35 for members and $45 for non-members. Check your calendars and see what works best for you. Hint: line up your Hostess duties with the appraisal slot.

Because I am so late getting this going, I will allow non-members to sign up immediately, so please get your name in place for a time slot.

Hopefully, this has not caused too much inconvenience and will be as successful as always.

Thanks, Bea Dersham

Crown of Maine Quilters - our sister quilters from northern Maine

By JoEllen Mass

I have been corresponding with the president of Crown of Maine Quilters, Chris Murphy. This started with our daughters working for the same company in Freeport Maine and both talking about their moms and quilting.

Chris sends me their newsletter which I will forward to Jodi, our Newsletter Editor. She in turn will forward it to the members via e-mail. They are a small group, but very active. I have a feeling they are all superb quilters. I have received some good ideas for our guild which I have shown at the meetings and will give to the appropriate committee chairmen. Chris has our website so they can view our newsletter

It is good to extend our friendship to Maine! We are publishing their July Newsletter for you to get to "know" them." Future issues will be emailed.

Crown of Maine Quilters Newsletter July 2013

The Crown of Maine Quilters met on June 12th, 2013 at the Gray Methodist Church, Caribou.

Eighteen members attended: Kate Albert, Marie Bagley, Lona Cyr, Alma Fogg, Mary Ann Gagnon, Lois Griffin, Frances Heales, Lucinda Jacobs, Jennifer Johnson, Beth King, Valerie Maynard, Deirdre McMahon, Chris Murphy, Diana Rauch, Barbara Rouse, Candie Sampson, Sue Skidgell, and LaVone Walters.

President Chris Murphy opened the meeting at 6:40 PM.
Secretary's Report accepted as printed.
No Treasurer's Report

Chris thanked all previous officers for their help during the year. She mentioned a CD available from "Superior Threads" describing the best threads to use for various stages of quilt making.

Old Business

Jennifer reported on the two meetings of the sub-committee to plan the 25th Anniversary celebration on Saturday 10th August. A sample invitation, designed by Tim and Deirdre McMahon was approved. It will be available on the web-site for members to print off. It will be distributed to the Public Library and to retailers who are willing to display it. Deirdre reported that Graves had quoted $50.00 for an iced slab cake with our banner design on top. Jennifer asked for a budget to cover this and other expenses for the day; $150.00 was approved. Any surplus will be returned to the treasurer. Members had brought in enough fat quarters for the quilt to be donated to Wintergreen Arts for their fall fund-raiser. Lois has the pattern for the simple "Turning Twenty" top and Kate and Sandra will organize the sewing and quilting. The fund raiser will be held in October.

Jennifer asked that members take pictures and send them to her of quilts they would like to include in the "bed turning" display. She would like quilts with an historical background, those that celebrate a family event or show a specific technique, etc. She needs a list of charter members, so that they can receive invitations to the celebration. There will be an information table with a display of books and magazines about quilting. Members were asked to contribute items for door prizes, like fat quarters, thread or small tools for quilting.

Please bring all non-perishable items to the July meeting. Members who can spend some time at the Center were encouraged to bring small items to work on as 'conversation starters' with visitors. Members were asked to bring a plate of little nibbles. Cold drinks will be provided.

Tickets for the State Raffle were still available. The proceeds offset the expenses of Maine Quilts, the state show.

Goals for the year: Members made known if they were complete. 18 members will receive pins this year at July meeting.

The Quilt-as-you-go class will be held on 22 June. Members were asked to sign-up if they hadn't already done so. Kate is hosting this class at her Shop (kalbert@nbnet.nb.ca). Pres. Note: Due to too few numbers, the class was canceled until the fall.

The "Round Robin" challenge will start in July. The starter squares of the Robin material will be distributed. Participants may either bring the squares back in August or add material to make a pieced block. The centers will be redistributed and a border added all-round. In September the larger squares will be redistributed for a second border. The squares with the two borders will then return to their owners in October. The owner will complete the piece.

New Business

Chris reported that the Credit Union required a motion to be made, seconded, and approved by members to appoint an alternate signatory on checks. Frances proposed the motion "That the president of Crown of Maine Quilters (Chris Murphy) shall be the alternate signatory on checks issued by the group". The motion was seconded by Lona Cyr and unanimously approved.

Marden's PI is running a Patriotic quilt contest, free pattern in the store. The Madawaska Quilt Show will be held in the Daigle Furniture Store, Main Street, Madawaska on 8,9,10 August during store hours. Friends and Needles Show in Houlton will be 16-18 August.

The Mystery gift was won by Valerie. Lucinda won the half and half ($7.50). Show and Tell was very well supported with a number of large bed quilts. Lois asked members to help identify the blocks and their makers in a 'house' quilt the group made some time ago.

Program: Kate demonstrated how to join the ends of the No-hand-sew binding. Thanks Kate. Less confusion now.

July Program: The program for July will be a Quilter's Scavenger Hunt led by Carla Cyr. Items on the list to find will be common (or uncommon!) items that most quilters own and use. Why not add a few extra things to your quilt meeting tote bag to help your team. The team with the most points will win prizes. Now, what could appear on the game list that you might carry in your bag?? Next meeting 10th July at Presque Isle Methodist Church at 6:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Frances Heales, Secretary

BOUTIQUE QUILT SHOW 2013 BE A STAR by Dena Lanning

Once again this year we will have a boutique instead of a silent auction. All members are encouraged to participate by donating something for this sale. You can do this in three different ways:

1. Donate items and let the Guild have 100% of the proceeds.
2. Donate items and you get 75% of the proceeds and CHQ will get 25%.
3. Hang a quilt in the show and mark it for sale. The 75%/25% will apply to these sales.

100% donated items: All money goes to the Guild. Price range is zero to $50.00. Items can be turned in ahead of time to Dena Lanning 245-3640. The person donating will suggest a price. The committee will mark the price on the item. There is no limit on the number of items you can donate. Left over items will be given to the maker.

75%/25% split sale: 75% goes to the person donating, 25% goes to the Guild. There is a 5 item limit for this split. No limit on the price of the item. Members price their own item, with the price tags given to them by the Guild. List all items on this entry form. Turn the items in to Dena Lanning at the Guild meeting on August 19. Or bring the items to the church on Wednesday, August 21 between 11:00 AM and noon.

Price code to be used on tags is: 75/your initial code/price of the item.
