

Cheyenne Heritage Quilters Patchwork Update

June 2015

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community

President: Sue Frerich

Greetings Quilters and Happy Summer!

The quilt show will be here before we know it. Hope you're more ready for it than I am. Mine still need hanging sleeves, and one still needs a back!

Remember Annette Ornelas will be the speaker at our next meeting. I got an e-mail from her recently firming up details and she told me she is bringing lots of quilts. It should be fun night. For those of you taking her class that Monday, don't forget the class is at LCCC in the Health and Science building, Room 111. If you read this in time, there are still slots available if you want to sign up.

Hope to see you around town or at one of our meetings.

May 18, 2015: Ione Pedersen

Submitted by Genelle Warner

Sue called the meeting to order and introduced our three visitors and asked the question of the night - "What are your plans for the upcoming summer?" Our table had plans for a trip to Alaska, trips and or cruises with family members, a trip around Wyoming to learn about the state's history, a road trip to visit relatives and one member will help move her daughter. Various announcements from committees were made. The upcoming quilt show is fast approaching. There is still one challenge quilt kit left for sale. If interested please contact Linda Herget at 635-0921. Tickets for the Opportunity Quilt are moving forward. If you would like more tickets please contact Linda Herget also. The "Opportunity Quilt" is making its tour around the area. Currently it is in Laramie and will be coming to a shop near you soon. There will be a "boutique" at the Quilt Show again this year. Members are asked to make items for sale at our boutique. Forms are located on our website to enter items in the boutique. There was also a call for quilts to be shown in the show. Anyone is able to have a quilt shown in our show. Entry forms for these quilts is online, also. Dates for dropping off quilts to be shown are August 3 and August 10 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Frontier Methodist Church located at the intersection of 1888 E 4 Mile Rd and Powderhouse Road. Please have your narratives written and handed in by July 20 meeting so the signs and booklets can be made. Bea Dersham spoke about the quilt appraisals. There are still openings for having your quilts appraised during our show. Please contact Bea at 637-7195, if interested. Quilts of Valor will have a sew day on May 21 at the Quilted Corner from 10 p.m. through the day. We have several tops that are ready to be quilted. If you are interested in donating some time to quilt for us, please contact Linda Herget at 635-0921 or Marilyn Lanham at 635-9246. We appreciate your consideration. Carol Gardner spoke about Community Quilts. We are moving along with getting these quilts finished. It was stated that all quilt kits that have been signed out should be finished and returned for quilting and binding as soon as possible. Annette Ornelas will be teaching a class on her famous curved piecing look on quilts. There will be a class on June 15 at LCCC, Room 111 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. She will present a trunk show of her work at our regular evening meeting that day. The next board meeting will be held June 1 with a pot luck meal at Sue Frerich's home. Board members please contact Sue with the item you will be bringing to the pot luck. New officers have been nominated for the 2015-2016 year. The evening program was presented by Ione Pedersen, a very accomplished quilter. She showed many of her finished projects she had made since beginning quilting in 1998. Following a short break to admire Ione's work, show and tell took place. Mary Popp, showed two items, Sue Frerich showed a needlepoint wallet she did in a class on her most recent trip, Genelle Warner showed two items that were made from a panel. Mary Harpold showed a moose hanging from a Mckenna Ryan pattern. Jean Hersman showed her quilt named trees and stars. And an interesting patriotic quilt was shown by Jean Parks and Kathy Wilson. Liz Escobedo showed several items she made.
