Patchwork Update

October 2017

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community

NOTE FROM OUR PRESIDENT: Rose Slatten

Hello Ladies,

It's October and we are three quarters through the year. The snow last Monday was beautiful but what happened to Autumn? Well the good thing is we can all say good bye to our shovels and garden gloves for the next six months. I'm looking forward to curling up under a lap quilt in front of the fire with needle and thread ready to create.

I hope to see a big turnout for Sew night Oct. 16th as we will all work on Community quilts.

Our meeting Nov. 6th should be fun. We are all suppose to bring a couple of Christmas or Thanksgiving quilted items to share with all. So I guess it's gonna be one large Show and Tell.

Lastly I want to thank you all for the well wishes cards and emails. The physical therapy I am going through is helping tremendously.

I wish all of you new quilt ideas, fun, and health this coming winter

Rose Slatten

SOCIAL: Daenette We are now in the home stretch of finishing our Dresden Plate Quilts. I hope you will be excited about the 10 dresden plates that have been made for you. You may add as many more dresdens to your own quilt as you would like. We will hang your finished quilts in December at our Christmas party. If you can't get your quilt quilted by then, please bring your finished top for display. Won't it be great to see 27 different Dresden quilts? I'm so proud that you have stuck with it to the bitter end!!! The dresden bags will be given back to the original owners at the first meeting in Oct. Then you have until the 1st of Dec to finish your quilt. Don't Quit - FINISH !! Daenette

TUESDAY SEW DAY CHQ LIBRARY: Cathy James: CHQ Sew Day Last Tuesday of the month is our day to sew at the Library in the Willow Room from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome to come and leave at any time during the sew times. Outlets and table are available if you wish to bring a sewing machine. It is a good time to do a quilt binding, some hand embroidery, hand sewing or any other needlework you enjoy doing. Upcoming dates are October 31st and November 28th. Hope to see you there!

Quilts of Valor: Marilyn Lanham.

Quilts of Valor will meet 10/18 at the Cottonwood room at the library from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Please come join us all day or even an hour.. Hope to see you there. Marilyn at 635-9246 or 631-3623.

REMINDER: Board Meeting at the library 7:00 P.M., Mon Oct 23.

Bring your Roundtuit to Nov 6th meeting, Winner will be picked for Roundtuit

Oct 20th and 21st

2017 Quilt Club Programs

October 2	Jan Donovan from the Northern Colorado area will be sharing her talents as a Collage Artist. Please come and enjoy her works as we hope to have her back in the spring for a class.
October 16	Community Sew Night. Bring your sewing supplies and if you would like to sew, your sewing machines.
November 6	Christmas Quilt Show. Each member should bring an item or two for the upcoming Holiday Season to share with the rest of the membership.
November 20	Cathy, one of our own members, will be doing a trunk show. You will be surprised that Cathy had her own quilt shop in California. She was invited on the Road to California Show
December 4	Christmas Party. Round Tuit should be brought to share with everyone. Dresden Plate Tops need to be brought to show off, and thanks to all the ladies who helped us with all the lovely Dresdens. Let's make this a very special thank you night. We know this is a busy season but please try to come for sharing night.
	NOTE: Already making plans for next year. PLEASE bring them to my attention. Thank you everyone for the support all of you have given me this year. I enjoyed finding interesting ideas for the programs. Linda Price.

Cheyenne Heritage Quilters
October 2, 2017

Mary Ellen Little led 24 energetic members and two guests for our meeting. It was a wet snowy night for getting back to what we love to do.

Announcements: Mary Ellen Little wanted people to mention possible office position ballots for the upcoming elections. Daenette More would like all ten Dresden Plates to be finished by our next meeting. You can make more than one so everyone has at least 10 available.

PROGRAM: Jan Donovan "My Journey to Collage" was our speaker. With blues, browns, grays, and animals galore, she developed her collage quilts. She hoped at the end of the presentation, you too will have the desire to get into art quilting.

She was 19 when she started quilting with embroidery on white, to appreciate her parents on their 25th anniversary, from a quilt kit found in the clearance bin. What she received was a king size quilt. This was a challenge for a first-time quilter. Every movement she had she cross stitched the panels. With more challenges on the way, she completed it and it was hers today.

If you are passionate about something to do, it is fun and she is passionate about art quilting. There are no rules you are only as limited as your imagination takes you and you can go different directions with art quilts which aides to your own style. Thank you, Jan for inspiring us. As I looked around at faces, I could see minds churning and imaginations starting. I for one was greatly inspired and I do have the desire to try art quilting.
