Patchwork Update

January 2018

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community

NOTE FROM OUR PRESIDENT Note from Mary Ellen Little

Here we are two weeks into the new year. I have been deciding which UFO's I might finish and what new projects I want to try. Linda has been working hard to get speakers and classes organized and the calendar is filling up. Carole also has an activity planned for us to work together during the year.

There is good news on the Quilt Show front; Darlene McClure, Genelle Warner, and Arlene Flood are going to make the Opportunity Quilt. Now all we need is a committee.

I am looking forward to a fun and productive year for Cheyenne Heritage Quilters.

Mary Ellen Little

Social Committee: Thank you all for the wonderful contributions of food for the social time of our meetings in 2017. We really had a great variety of tasty things. Thank you also for accepting the bottled water, as I was too lazy to wash the pitchers and get ice. Your willingness to volunteer and be challenged made my job a lot easier. Cheyenne Heritage Quilters December 5, 2017

A wonderful Christmas celebration was had by about 35 members and one guest. We enjoyed the quilts, games and celebrations.

Program: By Daenette. About 20 quilts decorated the room with festivity and fun. Some nine months ago 27 of us embarked on a Dresden Plate Challenge. What fun was had and colors galore. So many different designs with pinks, reds, blues and every color one could imagine. Daenette, a huge thank you goes to you. I for one learned a lot about design and placement of blocks and you never know what will be the end result. There were trees, flowers, lights and darks. Each month the groups switched with someone to get a different design. Some were 24 veins down to 20 veins. Also, many different sizes. I am ready for the next challenge. Okay ladies let us finish these beautiful quilts and see the end results.

Twenty-five days of Christmas was enjoyed by everyone, we had two large circles sending gifts left and right and opening them. By the time it was over, you didn't know which one you would end up with. Especially the gifts that we wanted to hang on too "you can't steal this one, its mine." Plus, many surprises. By the 25th day of Christmas, we all ended up with awesome gifts from our sewing rooms.

Strip poker with strips of material at the end of the fun and games seemed to be popular. Who knows what we can make out of these strips of fabric. Lots of laughter and conversation filled the room.

SHOW AND TELL: Sylvia brought a quilt, Virginia brought a quilt. Mona showed a practice machine quilting design. Deb Pryzmus a large block quilt. Tracy showed Tapestry from Peru.

See you all next year!

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Jo Hamilton,
Secretary
