Pick-a-Pocket Denim Challenge - 2022

Calling all things made with Denim

At the March 7th meeting A.J. Yager, JoEllen Mass and Judy Gilmore will talk about working with denim. They have lots of ideas and tips for working large or small as well as tips for making denim "behave!"

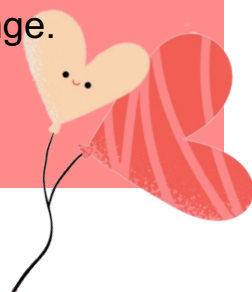

We'd love to hear from you as well. Even though many of you brought denim quilts to JoEllen's denim program a while back, we're hoping you have even more denim items you'd like to share...bags, pillows, quilts, art and so on. Here's your chance to inspire others to complete this year's Pick-a-Pocket Denim challenge.

And, by the way, it still isn't too late to join the Pick-a-Pocket Challenge for 2022. It only costs $10 to join the fun and maybe win a prize. Projects will be due at the August 2022 meeting.

Thanks again for helping us encourage creativity in this year's challenge.

We can't wait to see what you've made with denim.

Judy Gilmore

February 7 CHQ Meeting

For our February 7, 2022, program Carole Gardner has challenged us to:

1. Make two Heart blocks 6 1/2 inches unfinished. Use the same pattern for both. Change in some way that you have a variance/difference in the two blocks. Bring them to the meeting, Keep them with you until we have the program part of the meeting. At the end of the evening, we will have a drawing for all the blocks. For each block you bring, you get a chance in the drawing,
2. If you have made a quilt that you changed the looks of the pattern in any way, bring it for the Show and Tell. We will be talking about variation in blocks, blocks placements, colors variations and such.
3. Come join with us even if you do not make a block.
