

Cheyenne Heritage Quilter's Patchwork Update

November 2010

Dedicated to encouraging and broadening quilter's creativity, sharing quilting knowledge, exhibiting quilting accomplishments and contributing to the community.

Note from the President!

President: Esther Trevino-Neasloney

The weather was not very cooperative during the move to our new location at 1st United Methodist. Even though it was cold and drizzly we still persevered. A big thank you to Jeannie, Adelle, and Joyce for all their help, determination and cheerfulness during the move.

We had our first meeting at the church November 1st and from comments I was receiving during the evening it appears that members were very pleased with the new location. I think this was a great choice and look forward to future meetings. Esther - Esther

CHQ BOARD APPROVES WEBPAGE NEWSLETTER

The CHQ board voted at the October Board meeting to create a website that would be easy to update. Start-up costs will be $325.00, annual fee will be $25.00, and monthly fee will be $30.00. We plan to recoup the expense with savings on newsletter print and postage by encouraging members to go online to read the CHQ newsletter or print their own copy in color. Members will continue to get the paper copy of the newsletter until they ask to switch. Last year, 73 of our members listed an email address. If 50 of them chose to switch, the website will pay for itself. The website will also act as publicity for the guild. It will be very useful for advertising our meetings and the quilt show, cutting down on phone inquiries and SASEs. Initially, the one-page website will contain information about CHQ, our meeting schedule, our other activities, and a link to the current newsletter. For an example of a good looking one-page site, see <http://www.laramiecoop.com/>. We could picture quilts instead of cows. Barb Gorges has agreed to be "Webmistress" to facilitate publicity for the 2011 quilt show. Robin Theobald has volunteered to be "Webmistress-in-Training." If you have any concerns about the website, please contact: Barb, 634-0463, bgorges4@msn.com or Esther, 631-8092 quiltern@bresnan.net.

RAFFLE QUILT

It is time again to start working on getting our raffle quilt made. I will have a pattern ready, no later than the first meeting in November. We would love to have everybody make a block or two for the quilt. We look forward to your participation in this project. Please have completed blocks back to me by the December 6 meeting. Thanks, Carole Gardner

Newsletter opportunity

Our club needs a new editor for the monthly newsletter. This issue is the last one from me. We've weathered the membership drive and are well on our way for this quilt year so it is time for me to concentrate on the things I had planned to concentrate on when Esther came to me in August requesting that I step into the position at the last minute. I think this is a good time to make the change as there is no newsletter until January 3rd which will give the new person plenty of time to get set to do the job. Also, as the club moves toward a more electronic format, the new editor will have a good group of people to work with as the newsletter evolves. So, STEP RIGHT UP and WRITE ALL ABOUT IT!

Thanks for everything, Judy Gilmore

CHQ quilt show 2011 Initial Plans Set _____

2011 Quilt Show Chair: Barb Gorges, (bgorges4@msn.com)

Seven CHQ members with a total of over 100 years' experience with our annual quilt show have planned the remodel for 2011. The dates will be Aug. 25-27 (last month I was not quite correct), though Thursday will be open late afternoon into the evening instead of the usual 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Based on survey results, we will have the Silent Auction again, but there will be limits. We will ask that large quilts for sale be hung as regular quilt entries so they can be displayed rather than folded up. We will have quilt appraisals, quilt critiques, demonstrations and a few, selected vendors. New will be an area advertising CHQ and its activities. A $2 per person admission fee will go to First United Methodist Church in lieu of rent, but any CHQ members working will get in free.

We will schedule children's activities at another time, save door prize solicitation for events with mostly quilters in attendance (what do non-quilters do with the fat quarters they win?) and not have a featured quilter this year as we get acclimated to the new venue.

Volunteers so far include chairs Bea Dersham (appraisals), Florence Brown (hostessing), Jeannie Wilson (memorials, if necessary), Penny Morris (quilt critiques and vendors), Carole Gardner (raffle quilt), Cindy Paul and Kathy Sconce (raffle ticket sales), and Mona Weeks (quilt stand building).

In January we will have a meeting to organize publicity and a timeline for other tasks such as selling program advertising, advertising for quilt entries, and designing the silent auction and show layout. If you are interested in chairing any of the remaining committees, or working on any committee, and didn't already indicate it on your survey, please call me, Barb Gorges, 634-0463, or email bgorges4@msn.com.

Take part in 2011 CHQ Quilt Challenge, with or without kit _____

2011 Quilt Challenge chairman: Barb Gorges

As we get into perfect quilting weather, it is time to get going on your 2011 CHQ Quilt Challenge entry, due July 18.

Remember, this year the theme is "Recycle Tradition," so you can buy a $13 kit at one of the meetings that has some snazzy recycled fabric from Lois B. Hansen's extensive collection, already cleaned and pressed with buttons removed, or you can find your own fabric source and submit a $10 entry fee when you turn in your quilt.

If you are not buying a kit, be sure to read the rules before beginning your project—you need a photo of your recycled fabrics as they looked in their previous lives. Pick up the rules at a CHQ meeting or call or email Barb Gorges, 634-0463, bgorges4@msn.com.

ROUNDTUIT RALLY - 2011 _____

Roundtuit Chair: Darlene McClure, Co-Chair: Robin Theobald

It's time again to "get around to it" on some of those projects that you just have to get done or that you want off your list of unfinished projects (so you don't have to think about it anymore!)

Here is how the Roundtuit Rally works:

- 1) Choose one or more projects you want to get done this year (choose a maximum of five for the rally)—these might be projects you started in a class but didn't finish, tops that you finished piecing but never quilted and bound, kits that you loved and bought and never started.

- 2) Write each project on a Roundtuit

- 3) Your deadline for entries is December 6th - give your Roundtuit(s) to Robin Theobald or Darlene McClure by December 6th (or call one of us if you can't make it to the next two meetings)
- 4) Cut/sew/quilt as many times as it takes to finish your project(s)
- 5) Bring it to Show and Tell – we all want to see your success!
- 6) Report your completed project(s) to Robin or Darlene
- 7) We'll have our finale in May 2011 and draw for prizes

Minutes

Update Editor Judy Gilmore

October 18, 2010 We met at Creative Ministries for the last time. From now on Cheyenne Heritage Quilters will meet at First United Methodist Church in downtown Cheyenne. At tonight's meeting Esther introduced our visitors Marilyn Carlson, Stacey Bray and Vidette Bray. Then we had some committee reports. Barb Gorges has set October 28 as a planning meeting for the Quilt Show, Sue Frerich kicked off the Round Robin activity. Bonnie Osborn talked about Community Quilts, Judy shared the map to the First United Methodist Church downtown and then we had Show & Tell. Thanks to Esther for sending me the following list of Showers & Tellers:

Marilyn Lanham - 4 halloween pieces
Jo Ellen Mass - fabric and stitchery

DAENETTE's Class Projects

Jeannie Wilson - Judy Niemeyer Class project

Pat Collins - Sunbonnet Sue

Genelle Warner - 2 halloween pieces

Mary Harpold - halloween

Bonnie Chapman - halloween

Becky Bogart - halloween

Sharon Patch - halloween

Barbara Stugart - Guilt

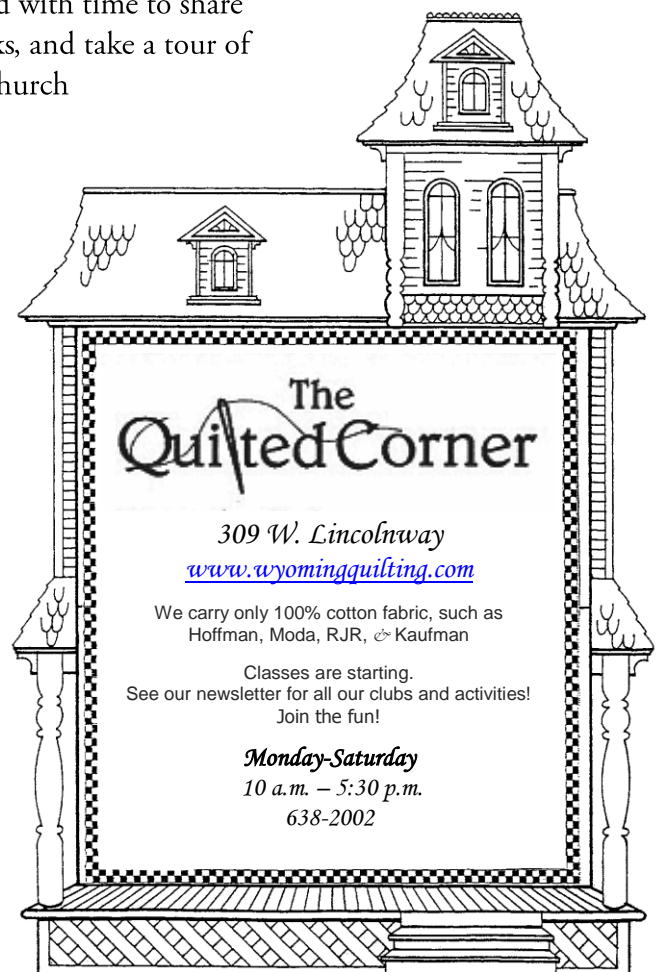

Naenette More - Halloween panel

Donna Dolan - Halloween - strip piecing samples that could be made with the winnings from tonight's games.

The rest of the evening was spent playing games, winning fabric, and working on puzzles with assorted snacks to aid in the festivity.

November 1, 2010 This was the first meeting at the new location in the First United Methodist Church which is located in downtown Cheyenne. Our president introduced the guests that came this evening which were Merrily Bobiney, Jenny Rish, Vicki Janz, Isabel Hennicu and Tana Carpenter. Carol Gardner brought the pattern for the Raffle Quilt and strips of black to be used in creating the pieces needed to complete the quilt. Esther announced that Barb Gorges will be in charge of the new website. And the rest of the evening was spent getting to know those members that have taken positions of leadership in the club. The following people brought show-& tell and introduced themselves to the membership: Pat Messer, Darlene McClure, Janet Osborn, Joy Torelli, Mona Weeks, Carolyn Morris, Cindy Paul, Kathy Sconce, Donna Dolan, Anna Eggleston, Sandy Farrell, Nancy Williams, Barb Gorges, Judy Gilmore and Linda Herget. Sue Frerich gave some information about the Round Robin and Robin Theobald talked about the Round Robin. There was a drawing for door prizes, and wonder of wonders...Judy Gilmore won some fabric...but she got so excited about winning that she forgot to write down any of the other winners. Sorry ladies. Our regular show & tell included items from Betty Kempter, Becky Bogart, Bonnie Chapman and Roberta Robinson. The evening ended with time to share snacks, and take a tour of the church
