Good Morning. Please pardon the lateness of this newsletter. We are getting things organized, though and hope to be earlier next month. Some of the information reported in this newsletter has already come to pass. Very sorry.

May 4, 2026 Program – Marci Rulon

Dana Jones, Dana Jones Quilts - Color the World with Quilts

After many years of dreaming about quilts, Dana Jones decided it was time to live that dream. She did not gradually drift into quilts. She states that she had a specific date where she declared she was a quilter: September 14, 2003. This date was the final day of a three-day Martha Pullen quilt event in Huntsville, Alabama, where she encountered today's quilt world for the first time. For three days, she drove home from Alabama to White Plains, NY, and stopped at more than a dozen quilt shops along the way. She was hooked.

In 2009, Dana moved to Colorado with a job as editor with Quilters Newsletter magazine. One year later she was running the magazine. She also had an opportunity to work for two years as editor for the SAQA Journal (Studio Art Quilt Associates), where she went on to research and write a book, Pagtinabangay: The Quilts and Quiltmakers of Caohagan Island.

The trunk show Dana will show subtly shares best practices in color selection. She will show more than 40 quilts up close and personal. Dana states, "Learning color has never been so easy, so intuitive". After this presentation, the group will be tuning into our unique color sense. Those a bit intimidated by color will find inspiration in this light-hearted, conversational presentation.

Acting President's Message – Marci Rulon

Here it is the beginning of May already. Like all of you, I am busy preparing for spring activities: cleaning up my flower beds and yard, graduation of my granddaughter from High School and vacation plans. Make sure you take time out to do a little quilting. My projects seem to be all handwork and I joke I have forgotten how to sew on my machines.

Yes, I am sure many of you have read and reread the heading on this article. CHQ will be looking for volunteer/nominees for the open position of President to fill the term until December 31, 2027 on Monday, May 4th. The group also has several other open positions to fill this year and we should begin to think about nominations for our 2027-2028 years. Positions that will be open are the Treasurer and the Vice President/Programs. The group is also still looking for a member to step-up as the 2027 Quilt Show Chair. Please consider sending in your name to the nominations committee.

What does this require? Many of these jobs are not that time consuming. We all have busy lives, but the work is so rewarding. Yes, there is some work and preparation, however, we have members who would be willing to assist and there is also the possibility to mirror the members who have these positions now. Membership participation is a great way to interact and meet our membership. Participating in CHQ activities is so critical for retention, loyalty and growth. Through these opportunities you will feel connected and valued for your input. Please think about stepping up and volunteering for one of these positions. Build connection with your fellow members and provide input on how the group may grow into the future. There are many hands willing to assist.

AccuQuilt Sew-A-long – Cindi Young

Calling all Accuquilt owners and their friends!

Is your Accuquilt cutter and dies collecting dust? Mine is!

So, let's do a 12 month Sew-A-Long!!!!

What, you don't have a cutter or one of the Qube sets? That's ok, reach out to your friends, they may be willing to share so you can cut out your fabric.

You can choose a couple different ways to sew along. I have chosen a pattern from the accuquilt website, you can sew along with me, or you can create your own quilt using one of your BOB (Block on Board) dies. If you choose to use a BOB die, please post your blocks on Facebook (I will have an album set up under photos).

Each month I will post what blocks to work on, then at the end of 12 months we will have a wonderful quilt to show. The pattern I choose will accommodate any size Qube that you have, it's written for the 12" Qube, but any size will work.

Sometime in May I will get an email sent out to all members with all the details and a picture of the quilt. I will also post on Facebook. We will start in July 2026, and our quilts will be ready for the quilt show in August 2027.

The purpose of this Sew A-Long is to engage our members, to encourage us to create wonderful quilts, to use tools that might be sitting around, to get involved, and of course to have FUN!! So, start talking to your friends to see if they have an accuquilt and maybe you can do this fun project together. CHQ's Open Sew is a perfect place to get together to make these blocks!
